Administrative/Biographical History:

The Tom Green County Historical Society was organized in 1944 by Susan Miles, Grace Bitner and Doris Hoffman. The group first met in the county library. As the organization grew, the group moved the meetings to the Cactus Hotel and from there to Fort Concho. The organization currently meets on the 3rd Monday evening of every month at Fort Concho. At one time the Society had a hundred or more members.

In 1982 the Susan Miles Scholarship in history was established at Angelo State University as a living memorial to the late founder of the Society.

Scope and Content:

Collection contains research material compiled by the Society, including papers, photographs, newspaper clippings, and letters. Three binders contain indices for these materials.
